

Coaching Parents to Support the Emotional Wellbeing of Children with Dyslexia, Learning Difficulties & Differences

Coaching parents and giving them practical strategies to support their children can be difficult if you don't have access to the right resources. A Story About Jake and associated resources might just be an easy and effective toolkit to help your parent and child clients.

This short course takes you through A Story About Jake, develops your coaching language, and is followed by a few questions to check on your understanding and use of story and resources. Simply purchase and download the course guide, read and respond to the activities, and reflect on the concepts and ideas. A certificate to formally acknowledge your understanding and use of the resources will be provided upon successfully answering assessment questions online.

The course explores the following 9 elements in A Story About Jake:

LEARNING	ACKNOWLEDGEMENT	BEING PRESENT
USING FEW WORDS	PROXIMITY	CHECK-IN
LISTENING	SOLUTIONS	REFLECTION

PLUS

Additional digital ASAJ resources included with Course Guide download to support therapeutic interventions.

Includes:

A Story About Jake Course Guide - Story Book - Colouring Book - Confidence Cards - Talk Cards - Today Check-in Chart - Journal Page - Feelings Chart - Feelings Desk Card - Conversation Chart - Parent Guide - 'Things to Remember' for Parents - Parent & Child Story Discussion Prompts.

HOW IT WORKS:

1. Go to storyaboutjake.com, purchase and download.
2. Be guided through the self-paced reading, activities and reflections.
3. Complete the assessment questions online.
4. Receive your certificate!

COST: $30

Independent Reading, Activities & Online Test

ACA Recognised OPD Points: 10